Class Rules

Precourse work must be complete by 8:00 a.m. the day prior to class start date. In some cases, S30 may ask students to complete the material sooner. Exceptions may be made with explicit consent from a S30 instructor or staff member.

Missing mock interview after scheduling of mock interview will result in blacklisting student for one week. "No shows" in three mock interviews after scheduling of mock interviews will result in permanent blacklisting the student from mock interviews.

Attendance

Attendance is required. Attendance is monitored closely during video. Attendance is critical to success in the program.

Students may miss no more than ten hours per month and are required to connect with a S30 Cohort Senior Instructor regarding missing hours. Missing more than ten hours per month may result in removal from the program, determined on a case-by-case basis.

Code of Conduct

S30 is challenging by design. To ensure student success, we have outlined several guiding principles to follow.

Punctuality – S30 expect all students to be on-time to all scheduled classes, office hours, certifications, job interviews, and other time-sensitive obligations. Punctuality and respect for others time is a given for the roles we train for.

Participate –S30 expects each student to actively participate in the course by attending all lectures, having an online presence during course hours, engaging with instructors, and collaborating with other students. Participating is the biggest indicator of success.

Complete All Coursework –S30 expects students to complete all assignments given as part of the course. Repetition is key to solidifying the foundation of knowledge.

Ask for Help –S30 encourages students to proactively reach out to instructors, or fellow students for help.

Integrity –S30 has a zero-tolerance policy for plagiarism, or cheating of any kind.

Respect - S30 students and staff have diverse backgrounds. Students are expected to contribute to creating a positive experience for everyone by being respectful, tolerant, and open-minded. S30 strives for a welcoming place to learn with encouragement, support, and active listening.

Professionalism - S30 is a professional environment. Punctuality, timeliness, accountability, and open communication are crucial, not only for student success at S30, but also in careers afterward. Additionally, professionalism includes protecting internal intellectual property.

No Harassment Policy - S30 is a place to learn. We aim to create an environment of mutual trust and the absence of intimidation, oppression, and exploitation. Students and staff should be able to work and learn in a safe, yet stimulating atmosphere. As such, S30 will not tolerate any form of harassment, verbal or physical conduct, designed to threaten or intimidate others, which includes but is not limited to the following: Verbal harassment includes comments that are offensive or unwelcome regarding a person's nationality, origin, race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, age, body, disability or appearance, including epithets, slurs and negative stereotyping. Nonverbal harassment includes distribution, display or discussion of any written or graphic material that ridicules, denigrates, insults, belittles or shows hostility, aversion or disrespect toward an individual or group because of national origin, race, color, religion, age, gender, sexual orientation, pregnancy, appearance, disability, sexual identity, marital or other protected status.

Violations of the Code of Conduct may result in removal from the program. If removed from the program for Code of Conduct reasons, students' tuition refund will be prorated as described in the Withdrawal, and Refund Policy below.

Withdrawal, and Refund Policy

Withdrawal and Refund Policy

- a. A student who signs the Confirmation Form and cancels before the first week of class receives full refund, and their agreement is cancelled completely.
- b. After first week of cohort no refund of fee is applicable.
- c. Student who are removed from S30 due to violations of the Code of Conduct will have their Agreement prorated as described above.
